Parson to Person ~ "Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. Jm. 5:16

How do you hear this? Does this encourage you that you are part of a body, able to share your heart with others and receive prayer and healing? Does this challenge you to be vulnerable to others, willing to share? Are you willing and desiring to be used in other's lives, praying with them? Or, do you hear this as a command to be resisted? Do you respond with a guarded heart not willing to be open, not ready to trust? The challenge for me is this - "Lord, do I believe in and submit to Your word? Do I trust You as my faithful Creator? Then, help me to trust You in the design of Your church, and to act as a member of the body of Christ." And church, we can trust Him, for He is good. ~ PC
